

PHI BETA SIGMA FRATERNITY INCORPORATED
TAU SIGMA CHAPTER
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

“THE DOVE”

APRIL 2014

Brother Eugene Blocker

“Mr. A & M”

Brothers,

Brother Eugene Blocker was born in Bessemer, Al. and is a graduate of Brighton High School and Alabama A&M University. Brother Blocker received an Honorable Discharge from the United States Army. Brother Blocker was employed with the the U.S. Post Office in Cleveland, Ohio for 30 years!

Brother Blocker has lived a Phi Beta Sigma exemplary live of service. Evidenced by his deeds and his loyalty to his alma mater, he has worked diligently through and for the Alabama A&M Alumni Association. He has helped to raise money for academic scholarships. We all know that Brother Blocker can sell tickets and what a salesman he is! For more than 15 years he sold more than 2,000 tickets each year by himself for the scholarship fundraiser. Brother Blocker is known from coast to coast for his dedication and service to AAMU, he has earned the nickname, “Mr. A&M”

Brother Blocker hold the following honors: “Mr. Alumnus” during the Magic City Classic parade and game in the year 2000.

His membership listing are as follows: Life Member of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity Inc., Life Member of Alabama A&M University Alumni Association, Life Member of Disabled Veterans, Life Member of the American Legion and 33rd Degree Mason and Shriner. Brother Blocker is Tau Sigma’s Oldest Living Active Brother!

God Often Sends His Help by way of Human Hands!

“Our Cause Speeds On It’s Way”.

Fraternally,

Brother Roderick W. Wilkins,

Tau Sigma, Secretary

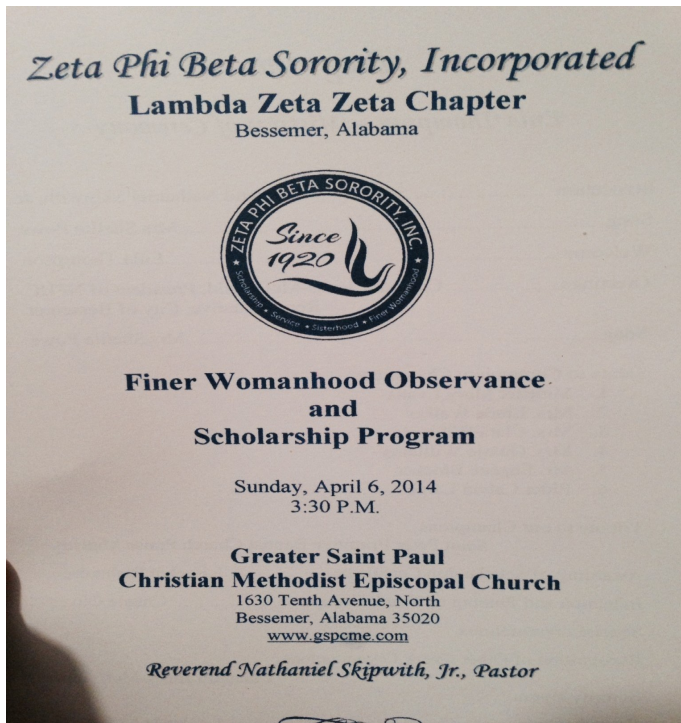

“Culture for Service and Service for Humanity”

Brother Eugene Blocker

“Mr. A&M”

Brother Blocker was honored by the Ladies of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc, Lambda Zeta Zeta Chapter. He was honored for his outstanding service to the community and lifetime memberships. Brother Blocker exemplifies the Principles of Brotherhood, Scholarship and Service.

“Culture for Service and Service for Humanity”

